Notable Election Focused Websites

- iCivics Election Headquarters: Free and non-partisan resources including games, lesson plans, videos, infographics, digital resources, and more. These resources are often tagged by grade level as well.

- 2024 Presidential Election How To Guide: Free resource for DE public school educators, this How To Guide was created for the UDLibSEARCH program at University of Delaware

- Misinformation Dashboard: Election 2024: Maintained and regularly updated by the News Literacy Project, this dashboard tracks topics and tactics of 2024 election misinformation.

- Prebunking Election Fraud: This article from Sept. 2024 was published in the National Council for the Social Studies' Social Education and explains how to use prebunking to confront conspiracy theories.

- Allsides: This website aggregates news from the left, right, and center, providing different perspectives on current events. Their Media Bias Chart helps identify the political leanings of major news sources.

- The Living Room Candidate: This website features Presidential Campaign commercials from 1952 - present.

- Dave Liep's Atlas of U.S. Presidential Elections: This site offers mapped election data from elections throughout American history.